— ingrained & inspirited since 1755

Ingrained & inspirited since 1755..We are deeply embedded and thus difficult to remove.. yes, we are that.. we are well and truly part of the furniture of West Street. Expect a lively spot full of banter and chatter, especially the whiskey snug and the parlour bar. Our building dates as far back as 1755. The original deeds will be on display in the hotel. It was an infamous tavern frequented by passing merchants in this busy port town. If only the walls could talk!
